

Akeakemai: Critical Re-envisioning of STEM Education Through the Lens of Culture and Place

Creating Balance in an Unjust World
Conference on Math Education and Social Justice
2020

Creating Balance in an Unjust World Conference

Fri, Jan 17, 2020 – Sun, Jan 19, 2020
University of Hawaii at Manoa

Join educators, parents, students, activists, community members and partners from around the country for a 3-day conference exploring the multiple critical lens of STEM education and the importance of integrating culture and place.

Conference Overview

Friday Community Engagements

The critical re-envisioning of STEM education through the lens of culture and place requires relationship with community. Learn more and register for school visits and community engagements here.

Keynote & Saturday Workshops

Join with educators from near and far to explore topics such as Culturally Responsive Math, Ethnomathematics, Science, STEM, Teacher Education, and community oriented instruction. Look here for the current list of workshops that will be at the conference!

Closing & Sunday Workshops

Continue in workshop explorations with fellow educators and build a network of support for the future.

Join our Friday Fellowship Event!

Aupuni Palapala Presents Song and Stories of Survivance on the Anniversary of the Overthrow.

‘Onipa‘a i ke Aloha ‘Āina - Dr. Leilani Basham

Mele Aloha ‘Āina - ‘Ohana Osorio

Friday January 17, 2020 (4:30-8:00pm)

@ Waiwai Collective 1100 University Ave #100, Honolulu, HI 96826

This social event will bring together local community members and conference attendees. All are welcome, please RSVP here for planning purposes.

Looking for Funding?

FOR HI DOE TEACHERS ONLY: Aupuni Palapala, a collaboration between the Office of Hawaiian Education and the UH Mānoa College of Education is pleased to announce a limited amount of funding for local conference attendance. This funding be utilized for conference opportunities that increase knowledge and implementation of Hawaiian values, language, culture and history within your classroom, school, and community. Teachers are invited to apply for the Aupuni Palapala conference attendance funding (not to exceed $500). Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis but should be received no later than 2 weeks prior to conference opportunity. If applicant is successful, we will notify you by email. All conference support will be provided by reimbursement through receipts of conference related expenses. Complete Conference Support Application ASAP for priority consideration.